All nominated hunters will be eligible for the Young Hunter Championship, where they will be offered back 100% of the nomination fees collected throughout the year as prize money (with a minimum of $2,500 guaranteed). Hunters will pay a one-time nomination fee to enter the program. Entry fees in the Young Hunter Division will be FREE for every show through November 2025.

Both championships to be held from October 8-October 12 during Fall Classic III.

All entries will be responsible to pay for stalls and admin fees.

Eligibility: Available to all 5, 6, and 7-year-old horses as verified with USEF.

Enrolled jumpers can compete in all WEC - Wilmington shows in all jumper classes, not restricted to amateur or junior riders. Horses competing in the Young Jumper Incentive Program are not eligible for the Welcome Prix or the Grand Prix. Horses that are competing in the Young Jumper program are not eligible to receive prize money.

If an enrolled horse chooses to compete instead in any classes that are not included in this program, (i.e. Junior, Amateur, Welcome and/or Grand Prix) all normal fees will be charged. It is your responsibility to be sure the proper adjustments have been made to your invoice before checking out, as always statements are final at the conclusion of the show on Sunday evening.

Horses will be listed in results and receive ribbons and awards but will not receive prize money.

Jumper Nomination Fees: $650 if completed by April 1, 2025
$800 if done prior to the closing date of the championship
$1000 if done AFTER the closing date of the championship

Hunter Nomination Fee: $250 - competing once in the division will automatically be converted to a nomination fee for all future shows.

Any discrepancies or unforeseen conflicts within the rules will be decided by WEC show management, whose decision will be final.

The purpose of this program is to promote the safe and ethical training and development of young horses in the country; therefore, jumpers will be limited to seven classes per week under the program.
